Prayer for Ordinary Time

Revive us again, O holy God, for we often forget who we are. We are grateful that you do not grow weary in reminding us of our true identity. Too often we become bound by the busyness and drivenness of our consumer society. Gracious God, impress upon us once again that we are of value not because of what we produce but because of who we are. Forgive us when we deny or ignore your handwriting on our hearts. Call us to awareness as we receive your words of Scripture, remembering that we are a chosen people, a people belonging to you, O powerful and present God. Amen.

Prayer for our Parish Vacancy

Loving God,
As we journey together through this period of vacancy in our parish, we thank you for your everlasting faithfulness to us. At this time of uncertainty and change we ask that you send us your Holy Spirit, to fill us with your vision, energy and faithfulness in prayer. Amen.
